

What is the Centennial Circle?

The Centennial Circle is a powerful network of leaders who are committed to ensuring that our two cultural landmarks - Centennial Park and the Parthenon - continue to be vibrant, walkable, public spaces that will flourish alongside our city.

Near the heart of downtown Nashville, Centennial Park serves as an oasis for nature, art, music, recreation, and community. To sustain this vital destination, dedicated supporters are needed to help the nonprofit Centennial Park Conservancy preserve, activate, and promote this treasure.

What does the Centennial Circle fund?

Centennial Circle Members provide vital funds to sustain our ability to preserve, enhance, and share the Parthenon and Centennial Park. These mission-critical annual funds ensure we are able to engage 500,000 people through accessible community programming and serve the 3 million annual visitors who enjoy the park each year.

Join us as we invest in:

Public Green Space

We collaborate with Metro Parks to identify, fund, and address ongoing maintenance and preservation needs in Centennial Park, improving the community green space for present and future generations.

Environment

We inspire positive environmental change at Nashville Earth Day, the city's official Earth Day celebration.

Art

We fund compelling art exhibitions, engaging lectures, and unique performances in the Parthenon museum for 350K visitors each year.

Music

We provide access to free community music events and showcase artists at Musicians Corner for 75K people annually.

Education

We support families by presenting 100 free educational children's events through Kidsville in Centennial Park and Metro Community Centers.

Philanthropic Investment

Your generosity advances our ability to ensure that Centennial Park continues to serve as Nashville's world-class central park while offering all members of our community rejuvenation, recreation, and opportunities for education. Our vision is a public park that preserves Nashville's earned reputation as the 'Athens of the South' and fosters the heartbeat that drives our city at the intersection of the arts, history, and culture.

Your gift of $100,000 (payable over 1-4 years) will sustain the Park's vibrancy through accessible and inclusive programming so that Centennial Park is now and forever a space welcoming to all.
